NO. PB-C-98-049

Ronald L. Chelette
 v.
 GRANT HARRIS et al

Motion To Object To Defendants Motion
TO Dismiss

Comes now Plaintiff RONALD L. CHELETTE, seek relief in this court, to Motion to object To Defendants Motion To Dismiss. That Due to Rules and Policy he had follow procedure That's Accepted to file his 1983 complaint. That Administrative Remedies of Grievances is not available on a incident of a disciplinary. And I follow the procedure of disciplinary and it shows I WAS ASSAULTED AND taken to infirmary where it was showed my wrist was DAMAGED AND after I never got medical attention other than a ice pack which Ms. Turantine, Ms. Reeves, Brenda Spears which Brenda Spears have letter from me notifying her of this fracture wrist. I was deny ex-ray for over 5 months and Dr. Crawford seen me stated it was broken. GRANT HARRIS had knowledge and reversed disciplinary to Attached and where I appeal and follow procedure. But I'm not school in law and I took the procedure I was told to take due to disciplinary being involve and incident's where I got hurt at and were take to infirmary by CO-I Reed and other official who NO of this. I have Attached verify proof and Exhibits to prove this. I seeked help in medical attention of that injury which is noted and acknowledged thru this disciplinary procedure due to it getting reversed shows I never did NOT ASSAULTED anyone. I was injury and staff or NO-one helped me after my wrist was broken. I layed months suffering and pain with a wrist big as a Baseball. I PRAY that this case is Accepted and not dismiss due to me follow disciplinary procedure and file in civil action that I have a right to. Verify documents Attached.
